17. (Original) An Information display device comprising:

a display unit for displaying an image;

a terminal ambient environment acquisition unit for measuring terminal ambient environment conditions indicating ambient illumination conditions of the display unit;

a terminal ambient environment database for storing the terminal ambient environment conditions;

a user input unit to be used by a user for designating a demanded image which is an image to be displayed on the display unit, the user input unit outputting an image demand signal which is a signal for demanding the demanded image;

a terminal characteristics database for accumulating terminal characteristics which are information including a manufacturer, a product number, numbers of pixels in height and width, a resolution, color characteristics, and a useable format; and an information transmitter receiver unit for transmitting the terminal characteristics, the terminal ambient environment conditions, and the image demand signal and receiving the demanded image which is adapted for the display unit in accordance with the terminal characteristics and the terminal ambient environment conditions.

18. (Currently Amended) The image display device according to claim 17, further comprising a user preference database for storing user preference information containing at least at least one of a user preference, an image display history, a user's age, presence of visual handicap, and visual power, wherein the user input unit outputs also the user preference information which is input by the user to the user preference database; the information transmitter receiver unit transmits also the user preference information to receive the demanded image adapted for the display unit including the user preference information.

19. (Original) The image display device according to claim 17, wherein
